Medicaid Management Reports

THIRD QUARTER, FY 1976

Medical Services Administration
Social and Rehabilitation Service
U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

FOREWORD

The Medicaid Management Reports are published quarterly by the Medical Services Administration's Division of Program Monitoring.

This report is intended to present some basic objective data and trends through tables and graphic means. The report serves also as a feedback mechanism to the States. It enables States to view their programs vis-a-vis other individual States and the nation, and to assist them in improving their programs.

This issue includes changes recommended by the States and other users of the report. We appreciate the constructive comments we have received to date and encourage the reader to offer suggestions for improvement. An appendix has been added to include the most recent non-State specific Medicaid information.

INTRODUCTION

These Medicaid Management Reports summarize and compare State Medicaid program activities. They are prepared quarterly from data submitted by the individual States. The Reports are the most comprehensive published collection of current Medicaid data.

Objectives

Three objectives are met by the Medicaid Management Reports. They provide the Medical Services Administration with both national patterns and individual State trends that are used to focus program monitoring activities on those States where monitoring can be most productive. They fulfill part of MSA's Congressional mandate to summarize program statistics and make them available to Congress, other Federal agencies, and others who seek knowledge about the program.

It is hoped that publication in this form will result in an improvement in the quality of the data submitted by the States. Quality enhancements that can thus be expected include: more timely submittal of reports; more complete reports; more accuracy in preparing estimates of future program costs; and reconciliation between fiscal and statistical reports.

Types of Data

To achieve these objectives, eight types of data are summarized in the reports:

Expenditure patterns and growth (Tables 1.1, 2.1, 2.2, 3.1, and 3.2)

Recipient counts and participation by eligible populations (Tables 4.1 and 4.2)

Cost per recipient, per capita, and costs per unit of service (Tables 5.1, 5.2, 6.1 and 6.2)

Administration and training costs (Table 7.1)

EPSDT (Tables 8.1, 8.2 and 8.3)

Potential Fraud and Abuse monitoring (Tables 9.1, 9.2 and 9.3)

Health Maintenance Organizations (Table 10.1)

Sources of the Data

Data are drawn from reports submitted by the states, as required in Federal regulations. These reports are generally known by an identifying number and the division of the Social and Rehabilitation Service responsible for handling the reports. The required fiscal and statistical reports that contributed to these Management Reports are described below:

NCSS-120 - Monthly Statistical Report on Medical Care

The NCSS-120 is a monthly report which includes such data as the number of recipients by eligibility category, expenditures by type of service, and EPSDT information.

OA-41 - Statement of Medical Assistance Expenditures

The OA-41 is a quarterly report used by the Office of Financial Management to calculate grant awards and used for accounting purposes. Included on the OA-41 report are expenditure data for medical payments, administration, and training.

OFM-65 - Quarterly Estimate of Expenditures

The OFM-65 is a quarterly report also used by the Office of Financial Management for calculation of grant awards. It includes estimates of expenditures for medical payments, administration, and training for the succeeding quarter.

OA-25.5 - State Agency Program Expenditure Projection Report

The OA-25.5 is a report used by budget planners in MSA to provide Congress with estimates of Medicaid's costs for the current year and to provide HEW with estimates for the succeeding year. It includes projections of expenditures by type of service as well as unit costs by type of service.

NCSS-119.1 and 119.2 - Quarterly Report on Allegations and Investigations of Suspected Fraud under Title XIX

The NCSS-119.1 and 119.2 are two reports summarizing state activities, both administrative and law enforcement, in attempting to control potential fraud and abuse.

Several additional data sources are used to complement and provide references for the Medicaid data. These sources include: Census population estimates; AFDC and SSI recipient reports; and Consumer Price Index - Medical Care Component.

All of these data sources have been integrated into a single, on-line, computer data file from which these management reports were generated. The graphics are also computer generated directly from the integrated data base.

Data Presentation

Three techniques are used in these reports in an effort to make the data more useful for program management:

- Graphic summaries. Some key program indicators have been selected for graphic display in trend charts, bar charts, or U.S. maps. These displays highlight gross program changes and differences among states.

- Rankings. The bar charts and many of the tables are ranked by a key indicator. This allows the reader to see easily and quickly where each state lies in relation to the others.

- Glossary. Terms used in this report are given nontechnical definitions to aid in the interpretation of the data.

Cautions

Cautious use of these data are encouraged for several reasons:

1. Medicaid is a state-operated program in which each state provides a different mix of covered services with different reimbursement policies for different target populations.

2. Much of these data are generated by the claims payment process in the states and, consequently, are affected by the lag between the actual provision of services and payment for these services.

3. With the exception of the OA-41 data, these data are not verified by the Federal government. Some states may use poor quality control procedures or submit estimates where actual figures are not available. This caution is especially important with respect to unit cost data.

4. National totals and averages include only available data. The states that have not reported completely or on time cause the resulting national data to be inaccurate.
